

You can either apply for a regular membership or an associated membership.

REGULAR MEMBERSHIP

To become a regular member, a doctorate and a number of scientific publications in the field of educational sciences are compulsory for GERA. (GERA Constitution § 3, (1)) A member may be admitted to the association by two regular members of the association proposing him or her.

The current membership annual contribution is €100.00 for regular members.

ASSOCIATED MEMBERSHIP

A person pursuing an academic occupation in the field of educational science and intending to do a doctorate in the field of educational sciences is eligible for the associated membership. A member may be admitted to the association by two regular members of the association proposing him or her.

An associated member may become a regular member upon application when she or he proves that the doctoral degree has been received. Associated membership will expire if such proof is not furnished within a period of six years. After a period of six years, associated membership can be extended upon request for up to two years if the doctorate has not yet been attained but is still being actively pursued.

The current membership annual contribution is €35.00 for associated members.
